No more Scab in Sheep.
The undersigned an old sheep farmer in the south of this province after many years of study in the pernicious infirmity of the scab, has at last discovered an infallible remedy against a sickness that in the body where it generally breaks out like a storm resisting all the remedies that to this time have been discovered.

This specific so simple in its application as great in its result, is preferable to all invented until now, it is cheaper than tobacco, and free from poisonous substances contained in all other remedies before invented.

With only one arrobe of my specific there is sufficient for the Scab of 800 or 1000 sheep, and at the low price of $ 160, i will facilitate all sheep farmers to retrive their sheep in a perfect state of healthiness; to make known this remedy and induce farmers to prove it, I have determined to sell small packages of one lb at $8 which I hold at every one's disposition who wants to prove its infalibillity.

Instructions for its application will be given in the deposit of specific against the scab.

FRIDAY, MAY 21, 1863.

THE TREASURY BILLS.

Minister Sarsfield has proposed a measure for the redemption of what are called Treasury Notes, which we call upon Congress, for the sake of the honor and credit of the country, to reject unanimously.

It is to be regretted that the finances of this country are entrusted to a man who, with millions in the Exchequer, has the effrontery to propose to the nation a sort of compounding business with the holders of these trifling obligations It is really monstrous and horrifying to think that public men will, without even a discernible motive, stoop to acts which damage irreparably their country's honor, without benefiting either themselves or their political colleagues.

Placing the most implicit faith in the continued promises of the Finance Minister, the holders of these Treasury bills—which only amount in all to about three hundred thousand dollars—have waited patiently for the meeting of Congress, to receive their money. What, therefore, is their surprise on reading the Bankrupt project of the compounding Finance Minister?

If there existed the slightest question as to the rights of the holders—if the legality of the bills was doubted, or the consideration given disputed—if the national exchequer was reduced to the last straits for want of cash—there might indeed be some pretext for proposing the conversion of over-due bills into 20 year bonds. But there never can, nor ever will, or never should exist a motive for acknowledging the principal amount of an obligation, and repudiating the interest. If the bills are forgeries, or illegally issued; if they are wanting in the slightest technicality in the legal form, let us quash them in toto; order them to be burned by the hangman. But if they are legal evidences of the nation's debt, if the holders are bona-fide national creditors, then, in Heaven's name, Dr Sarsfield, pay them at any cost: pay them, if even you and your fellow ministers have to wait years for your salaries; pay them, if you are even compelled to sell some of the national domain at a sacrifice. But, so far as we can learn, the national treasury is overflowing with cash, and now, since the change in the law regarding payment of duties at the rate of 340 to the doubloon has been effected, the receipts of the custom houses will be considerably augmented, and the treasury surplus still further augmented. Such being the case, we demand of the Minister by what authority, or for what motive, he imperils the honor and credit of this country, by the non-payment of a miserable, insignificant liability of 300,000 dollars.

If the Federal Court was duly established, the holders might sue the Government, and thus get judgment for their amounts; but the national creditors are even deprived of this remedy, either through accident or design; Mr Sarsfield, availing himself of their helpless position, dares to introduce a measure which, if carried out, would ruin the credit of the nation, and send his name to posterity as one of the most degenerate Finance Ministers ever known in this country.

A treasury note has preference over all other national liabilities, because it is issued generally without any previous negotiation, to meet the exigencies of the moment. The amount, the time, the interest, are clearly expressed on its face. It passes almost as currency, and, generally speaking, commands a a premium. It is the sheet-anchor of the treasury of every country.

And this is what Mr Sarsfield so contemptuously dares to trifle with; these are the securities which should be shaved of their interest, and converted into 6 per cent bonds. The proposal is so monstrous, the attempt so flagrant, the consequences of such an act so injurious to the whole country at large, that we hope the Minister will have the good sense to see his folly, and withdraw his project.

On behalf of the ruined shopkeepers of the interior, who are large holders of these bills; on behalf of the English merchants, who have trusted to the honor and credit of the republic, and sold their goods on these securities, on behalf of the character and reputation of the very country itself, we demand that those treasury bills be paid in cash, or renewed at short dates, for the full amount of principal and interest. The Argentine nation may be poor, but it has never been dishonourable.

THE FLORES CAMPAIGN.

Glorious News!

The filibusters are demoralized, in a military no less than a social sense, and the invasion has fallen through, without striking a blow. President Berro's motto "God and my country" has proved efficacious, independent of diplomatic intrigue, and in spite of treasonable neighbours. Indignant Heaven has struck the arch conspirator with a malady which will give him time to repent of his parricidal-attempt: his followers have turned their swords against each other, by a happy error, and some of the freebooters found involuntary executioners in their accomplices Meantime the lying rumors about Medina, so favorably received by Flores coffee-house allies in Buenos Aires, turn out as unfounded as the many fanciful inventions of "Tribuna"—"Nacional" manufacture. We take the following from Wednesday's "Reforma" supplement.

Salto 14th inst Everything here "in statu quo. There are vagrant bands of the enemy, which the Government forces successfully pursue, having lately killed a few and taken 3 prisoners Lamas' division is stationed in Arerunguá, and a body of "Colorados" in the Potreros of Goyabos. A letter of Ignacio Rivas has been intercepted, enclosing one from Flores, which insinuates that President Mitre may lend his influence in favor of Flores or Lamas as President elect of Banda Oriental (?) Nicasio Borjes passed through Itapebi on the 11th inst. with 30 men, to join the filibusters.

15th inst. The guerrillas are sacking the adjacent estancias, these three days, and destroying all the plantations. They take cattle, furniture, fire-arms &c., the chief plunderers being Caravallo, Castro and Salbatella. The estancias of Lamas and Fonseca have been of those sacked, the filibusters destroying what they could not carry off. The invasion is now plunder.

16th inst. Last night two gangs, under Caravallo and Aguilar set out in opposite directions to pursue Azambuy, and meeting in the dark, mistook each other, a bloody fight ensuing, in which Caravallo's men were shamefully routed, and lost Capt. Ariupe of Corrientes and some men killed, besides several wounded. The party dispersed in all directions, their leader being still missing. Next morning Aguilar, who remained master of the field, found he had cut up his allies, who are probably still ignorant of the happy blunder.

17th inst. Flores has named the Brazilian, Santana, generalissimo of the N· Fructuoso Gomez crossed over from Entre Rios, on the 14th, with 109 men The filibusters are dispersed everywhere, sacking, killing, and destroying, Lamas drove a body of them from Punta Cañas into Tacuarembo, capturing some arms and flags [red cross on white ground-). The body of Iturriaga was found, after Fausto had killed him. Pillage is the order of the day. Despatches from Lamas announce Flores' flight to the Brazilian frontier: some Government couriers have met the fate of Caravia, their throats being cut. Gomez and Romero committed great atrocities and then disbanded their men.

Concordia 17th inst. Flores has taken to the mountains: Fructuoso Gomez remains quietly here with 25 men, the authorities not interfering with him Uruguay 18th inst. Flores and his followers go about in bands of highwaymen, in imitation of Ribera. Lamas is driving them across the frontier. Aguilar entered the department of Paysandu with 60 men, but hearing that Azambuya was on the march, fled precipitately.

Col. Domingo García, and D, Eufracio Balsamo, confined for political suspicions were set at liberty on Tuesday by order of Government. The Chamber of Deputies has confirmed the subsidy granted to the steamer Caaguazu for running between Buenos Aires and Colonia. The petition from General Rivera's widow, for a pension was rejected. Medina's forces are about 4,000 men; Aparicio in his despatches to Servando Gomez, states that Lamas has captured 8 of the filibusters and was in hot pursuit of Flores (15th inst) who, with 200 men sought the frontier. Rumors of his death circulated in Montevideo; but it seems certain he is dangerously ill of brain fever. Lieutenant Modernell and 2 sergeants are under arrest, touching the mutiny at Paysandu, when the soldiers refused to embark.

Florida 13th [Siglo] The cavalry militia 650 strong marched hence on the 3rd inst., leaving a garrison of 100 infantry. Col Faustino Lopez, and Gen. Rivera's son were arrested, but the latter is now at liberty. All the foreign residents were invited to take up arms, but they only offered their services as patrol, and volunteered to arm at their own expense.

San Jose. The troops here stationed number 2,400. A boat race lately took place on the Rio Negro.

THE BANK AGAIN.

A very serious complaint has come to us against the Casa de Moneda, by a depositor whose wife having, by some mistake, deposited a certain sum in her own, instead of her husband's name, was refused payment, and put to serious inconvenience to prove his identity. The clergyman who married the man went to the Bank, but his testimony was of no value, and finally, after serious delay and producing several parties from the camp, the Bank thought proper to pay the money.

We don't feel ourselves in a position to attack the bank, as the clerks may have only followed the rules of the establishment, but we feel bound to tell our fellow-countrymen that, as we have now got a bank of our own, with good solid capital, doing a first-rate business, and well and ably managed by a gentleman who speaks our own language, and who is attentive and polite to his customers, he and his bank ought to be supported—Irishmen have great faith in the National Bank: we do not seek to disturb their confidence, or to insinuate that it is misplaced; but we do say that our countrymen ought to support the English Bank, better than they do; they will find it to their own advantage, and will escape the incivilities and misunderstandings which so frequently occur in the far famed Casa de Moneda.

MONTEVIDEO.

Mr Josling, manager of the River Plate Bank, has been succeeded by Mr. George Hall, as we learn by advertisement signed 'J, H. Green, Head Manager;' this is the second change in their staff within three months Calvo applauds D. Adolfo Alsina's vote of censure on General Mitre, for leaving the capital: he also translates our articles on the Oriental invasion. 'Monitor Masonico' is the name of a new paper, shortly to appear

General Medina is encamped at Charata [Tacuarembó), whence he has sent two divisions under Aparicio and Muñoz to scour the country of filibusters. President Berro seems to have expected much from the diplomatic visit to our Government.

The French packet left on Sunday morning for Rio. Four war-steamers. says the 'Imparcial,' have gone up the river Uruguay, belonging to the 4 powers, England, France, Spain and Italy.

They will probably assist the Argentine war brig Juan Bautista, in blowing up the Corralitos rocks, a process begun simultaneously with Flores' invasion.

The eminent writer De Moussy left B. Ayres for France per last packet, he is about to publish his 3rd volume on the Argentine republic which will shortly appear at Paris, under General Mitre's patronage. Arthur Napoleon is gone to Rio Janeyro, having been unable to get a theatre in Montevideo, during the present disturbances. A grand funeral service took place in honour of the late Sr Giro, ex-President, Dr Cervantes pronounced a brilliant discourse over the grave of Dr Olave, criminal judge, lately deceased.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Dr. Syntax is expected in Town on Saturday.

The 'Anti-Humbugs' meet on the first inst.

A new French paper will appear on the same day.

The Oriental invader is very sick with fever.

The Custom House is in a frightful state, every one trying to despatch his goods.

New paper banks are to be established in Dolores, San Nicolas and Mercedes.

A grand dinner at the British Legation to-morrow night,

The Colon Theatre is bought up: not a box not a seat to be got for lover or money. The Jenny Lind furor in the New York was nothing in comparison to the Zampillaerostation rage in Buenos Ayres: five thousand dollars have been offered for a box and refused.

Buenos Ayres is unusually lively at present; capitalists and house holders are giving dinners. Old Ladies with marriageable daughters, giving tea parties, whist parties, chess clubs, maté meetings: in fact, if it were not for the politician and the ounce brokers, there would not be a long face in our community.

The country is dashing ahead at a tremendous speed: yesterday a gentleman walked into our office, and subscribed for six papers for Australia, stating that he had just arrived by the packet: that he had been many years acting Consul-General in Australia, and that if Government only took the proper steps, thousands of the best class of immigrants could be induced to come to this country, which has immense natural advantages over many parts of Australia. In England, he says: let the Argentine Government but circulate a couple of hundred copies of the 'Standard,' supply every reading room, mechanics' institute and exchange with a copy; and the result is certain

What has become of the San Jean Bautista, which left here about the time of the Flores invasion? Has she blown up all the rocks in the Uruguay or has she blown herself up? we hope either Dr, Gelly or Mr. Obes will give us an answer.

We call attention to the protest in another column, of several English merchants on the Treasury bill question: it is well worthy of perusal.

Mr Cabral's accusation is the talk of the day. The Congress have about as much power as the Standard, to try Urquiza. The Federal court is the proper tribunal: why not open the court and proceed legally in the matter? Urquiza we firmly believe, is no enemy of Peñaloza, and if the "onus probandi" is thrown on him, he will find it difficult to clear himself: but there are rumours that others beside the Capt. Gen. would be put on their trial. Flores and his friends would also have to appear. Deputy Cabral is an honest man: we respect his intrepidity.

REPUDIATION.

To the Editor, Sir—Permit us to call your attention and through you, that of the National Congress to the project of the Finance Minister for the liquidation of that part of the Government debt, composed in bonds, of 2 p. % and treasury bills, which if carried into effect, must cause very serious losses to the commercial body, by whom they are principally held.

The so called 2 p. % bonds, are nothing else than Government promissary notes, bearing 2 p. % per month interest till paid, as you will perceive by the accompanying copy of one (which please to publish). By it, it will also be seen, that they were to be amortized by being received in payment of that portion of duties, for which bills at 6 months are usually accepted by merchants. This was most religiously carried out by the late Paraná Government and in consequence these documents were always in good credit and never below 2 to 3 p. % discount including the back interest. They were invariably received, as cash, in payment of goods &c., in the absence of other currency in the provinces. The rate of 2 p. % per month, cannot be considered exorbitant, since the present Government has been obliged to pay the same price for money and even now, discounts its bills in Rosario at 1 1/2 per cent per month.

The Treasury bills, speak for themselves. They are also Government acceptances at a fixed date, which have not been met at maturity in consequence of the war in 1861, and are therefore due in cash, with back interest. These also passed current in Rosario and elsewhere in cash, in payment of purchases made by traders from the Interior, who had no other currency and were always paid by the Treasury at maturity.

It is proposed, not to liquidate these debts—but to compound for them by giving in exchange bonds bearing only 6 p. % interest per annum, which of course, can only be worth 50 p % in the market. In the matter of the 2 per cent bills—the case is worse, as only 1 p. % interest per month is to be recognised, although merchants received them in payment, calculating, of course, the accrued interest at 2 p % per month. Now, to propose to give us 6 p. % bonds in exchange for the above bills is simply to entail on us a loss of 50 p. % if not more!

All these documents were issued by the Government in times of great pressures "and at par." They are considered by every nation—as preferential documents to any other class of loan and, hence, the value they have always maintained here and elsewhere till now—when it is proposed to put, them lower than a simple "libramiento" without any fixed date for payment.

The late Government, whatever, may have been its faults, always religiously fulfilled all its engagement, with the mercantile body and it was expected that the present one would not "do less." It seems, however, that in spite of all its vaunted honorable proceedings in all things, they do not object of repudiation, as in this case, which if carried out, must damage their credit entirely for all future financial operations here and abroad.

Both the above documents are legal bills, recoverable in any court of law and the present composition offered is tantamount to the Government declaring itself bankrupt and offering a dividend of 50 p. % to its most privileged creditors.

We hope, however, that the representatives of the people will shew themselves more honourable and careful of the National credit, by insisting that these debts be legitimately "liquidated" and "not" "compounded" for 50 p. %

If the present pressure in the Treasury is such that is impossible to pay them in cash, although the amount of both debts is only 300,000 dols, we suggest that these bills be renewed at fixed dates. Say at 6 and 12 months—capitalizing the interest accrued and to accrue up to those dates.

We are Sir, yours &c.
Several English Merchants.

THE O'CONNELL MONUMENT.

Sir:—As your journal is a prominent organ for the expression of national feeling, and your pages are often devoted to stimulate the lukewarm and encourage the timid amongst your countrymen, I am induced to ask a question through its valuable columns—namely. How can we sufficiently thank the Citizens of Dublin, for the enormous sum collected towards the erection of a testimonial to the memory of the honest honoured, patriotic Daniel O'Connell! In early life he began to agitate for Ireland, and was ever found on occasions when his voice, purse, or energies, were required for the attainment of political and commercial measures calculated to improve the condition of his native land. While living he was respected, and his presence in every assembly of Irishmen was the signal for enthusiastic applause and a hearty welcome.

Is he to be forgotten when dead?—are his merits to be disregarded?—will Irishmen suffer his dust to be un honoured. A monument is about to be erected? where is our patriotism? Will Irishmen be respected if they do not remember the worth and services of their Immortal Liberator? Will a great and wealthy party leave the Emancipator of millions without some testimonial to point the eye of the stranger to the spot where he reposes? Go into Westminster Abbey, St. Paul's Cathedral, and even Guildhall and you behold the gratitude of England inscribed upon marble and brass, while that of Ireland is prolific in professions and promises, but unpurposed and impotent in fulfilment.

Where are the national monuments to the memory of illustrious Irishmen, The very streets of London are full of statues, equestrian and otherwise commemorative of the achievements of the great men who have, in the field, on the wave, or in the senate, struggled successfully for their country: while in Dublin the statues which present themselves to our view only remind us of English dominion; and the few miserable national monuments which we possess are in such obscure positions [such as those of Grattan and Drummond in the Royal Exchange) that they are seldom seen. Poor Dan in the worst of times never flinched from his countrymen and it was the 30th of this Month 1844 that he was cast into prison for the cause of Ireland and there remained until his Councillors picked the locks of the Penitentiary.

The poor tribute of a monument, erected at the expense of his brother Irishmen should be paid to his memory. It should not be forgotten, and I hope the Irish of this Province will come forward and aid, according to their means, the O'Connell Monument.

I am yours truly
Thomas T. Fitzgerald.

CLUB PROGRESO.—This institution is progressing: we hear the funds on hand amount to over $100,000 and that there are more members than the rooms will hold. We understand also that they will shortly send orders to Europe for a fine china service and other necessary articles.

On Friday a general meeting is to take place to consider the application of several gentlemen to be admitted as members, which is objected to by some as there are already about 370 and insufficient accommodation for more.

LOCAL EVENTS.

25th MAY—This year the National guards are not to parade in the Plaza Victoria, but they will replace the troops of line in the garrison of the town.

The second of the line and artillery will form in the Plaza, at the orders of General Nazar and besides the four bands of the National guard will attend to play at intervals.

The battery Once Setiembre will fire three salutes of 21 guns.

What is the reason that induces the Government in the order of the day published yesterday to say that the "heroes of independence" contributes to the political freedom of four republics, we think it is five as follows

Argentine republic
Oriental do
Chilian do
Bolivian do
Peruvian do

and indirectly but very efficaciously that of Paraguay also.

PLAZA LIBERTAD — At last the Municipality has adopted the good measure of removing the northern produce market from this central square to the Hueco Cabecitas.

The residents of the locality will now have an opportunity of improving it as they have expressed a desire for a long time past.

COLON THEATRE. The usual performance did not come off last night; we are afraid that it is caused probably by the illness of Mr, William Lees.

VISITORS. Good numbers have arrived from the country during the last few days, to enjoy the festivities.

FOSSILS. There is an intelligent Frenchman in this city who has been engaged for the last year in collecting fossils for a French academy at considerable expense and labour; now the poor man finds he cannot take them with him, on account of the late law prohibiting their exportation,

We might well understand the equity of this law if the Government purchased them, but there is no such thing it is the case of the dog in the manger Government will not buy them, nor allow them to be exported, as if they were articles of war and not of science which is universal.
